

Territory Sales Manager (For Various US Locations)

Norman Window Fashions, a worldwide leader in window coverings is looking to expand its sales force in across the US.

Job Description

We are seeking an energetic & enthusiastic Territory Sales Manager to rapidly increase sales with new and existing customers.

Responsibilities:

1. Successful candidate must be able to produce results and meet sales goals.
2. Open new accounts
3. Roll out new programs
4. Building customer relationships
5. Keeping customers up to date with company's directions

Requirements:

1. Previous knowledge and background in window coverings industry or related home furnishings industry
2. Must have sound analytical and business skills
3. Ability to travel and work independently as well as in a team environment.
4. At least three years of face to face direct sales experience

We offer a competitive compensation and benefit package that includes base pay plus commission, medical/dental/life insurance, paid vacation, and 401(k).

Please submit your resume to Careers@normanintlusa.com and specify your preferred territory on the subject line. Please also let us know if you would consider relocation. We appreciate your interest in our company.